IN ’14–15

1

Cabrini captured the overall, men’s and women’s CSAC President’s Cup in 2014–15. This marks just the second time one school has swept all three categories. The Cavaliers’ men’s win was 29 and the women’s win was 26. The CSAC Presidents Cup program began in 1994–95.

2

The Cavaliers won five conference championships in 2014–15, earning titles in women’s basketball, men’s and women’s lacrosse, women’s soccer and volleyball. Cabrini won 100 conference championships since 1993-94.

3

For the second consecutive year, senior Aaron Walton-Moss was named the best men’s basketball player in the country. Walton-Moss became the eighth player in CSAC history to win back-to-back conference MVP honors from the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC). Cabrini has won 100 conference championships since 1993-94.

4

The Cavaliers boasted five CSAC Players of the Year as Dana Peterson (women’s soccer), Terry Ann Ferrell (field hockey), Aaron Walton-Moss (men’s basketball), Amber Keys (women’s basketball) and Lacie Doubet (women’s lacrosse) captured the CSAC’s top individual honors.

5

Cabrini’s tradition of impact freshmen continued with four freshmen of the Year. Anne-Marie Jones, Angel Bradshue and Zay Noye (all CSAC honors for volleyball), Sean Logan and men’s lacrosse’s Casey Marshall earned the Men’s and Women’s Newcomer of the Year honors.

6

The Blue and White were led by a group of coaches who combined to win seven conference Coach of the Year awards in 2014–15. Cabrini’s current stable of head coaches have combined to earn 35 Coach of the Year honors and win 48 conference championships.

7

The Blue and White men’s and women’s basketball teams entered the CSAC record books with their championships. Women’s basketball posted the league’s first ever four-peat with its 2014 title, while men’s basketball was the first conference team to earn three consecutive championships.

8

Women’s basketball seniors Megan Druker and Amber Keys led the Cavaliers both ways of the court. While both earned All-CSAC East Team honors, Druker was named CSAC Female Scholar Athlete of the Year, while Keys was named to the Capital One Academic All-District Team.
